STRAUSS LED THE STORM

Col. Higginson Tells Story of Muscled and His Banging, Crashing Music.

"The late Thomas Wentworth Higginson," said a Harvard instructor, "loved music, but not the extremely technical music of Richard Strauss, Ravel and others of that type. Concerning Strauss and his banging, crashing music, Colonel Higginson used to tell a story. He said that Strauss went one summer on a hunting trip in the mountains.
It chanced that on a certain afternoon a terrific thunderstorm descended on the hunting party. Amid earsplitting thunder and blinding lightning, amid deluges of rain whipped by a roaring wind, the hunters all sought shelter. Where, though, was Strauss? Three friends set out in alarm to look for him.
They feared that in the wild chaos of the storm he had fallen down a precipice. After a long while they found him, they found him doing—what do you suppose? Strauss stood bareheaded on the summit of a lofty crag. The lightning played about him in vivid violet flashes; the rain deluged him; the thunder rolled and rumbled around him; the roaring wind flapped his coat tails about his head; and the musician, a ramrod in his hand, was busily engaged on his high crag in conducting the thunderstorm!"

CHANGED CONDITIONS.

The New Station Master—I'm glad to find you such a willing worker. I was warned that I would find you the most ill-tempered and lazy man on the station." Porter (anxious to ingratiate himself)—"An' so I was till you comed, sir."—Black and White.

SAVED FROM DEATH

W. L. Mook of Mack, Ark., believes he has saved many lives in his 25 years of experience in the drug business. What I always like to do, he writes, is to recommend Dr. King's New Discovery for weak, sore lungs, hard colds, hoarseness, obstinate coughs, la grip, croup, asthma or other bronchial affections, for I feel sure that a number of my neighbors are alive and well today because they took my advice to use it.
I honestly believe it's the best throat and lung medicine that's made. Easy to prove he's right. Get a trial bottle free or regular 50c or $1.00 bottle. Guaranteed by S. E.
McGeachy.

BETTER STILL

Mrs. Askitt—Are you careful to make your husband tell you everything that happens to him?
Mrs. Tellitt—Yes, and I'm careful to see that nothing happens to him.

BLUEBERRIES AND CLAMS.

It is a far cry from clams to blueberries, but nevertheless they are pretty closely related to each other just at present. The clam supply is not over abundant now, and all because the blueberries are ripening.
There are many places down the bay where blueberries are to be secured.
The men who ordinarily dig clams are picking the berries and making a good penny, so they do not give their attention to the bivalves.—Portland Press.

There is little danger from a cold or from an attack of the grip except when followed by pneumonia, and this never happens if Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is used.
This remedy has won its great reputation and extensive sale by its remarkable cures of colds and grip and can be relied upon with implicit confidence. For sale by All Dealers.

"I Am Well"

writes Mrs. L. R. Barker, of Bud, Ky., "and can do all my housework. For years I suffered with such pains, I could scarcely stand on my feet. After three different doctors had failed to help me, I gave Cardui a trial. Now, I feel like a new woman."

Take CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

A woman's health depends so much upon her delicate organs, that the least trouble there affects her whole system. It is the little things that count, in a woman's life and health. If you suffer from any of the aches and pains, due to womanly weakness, take Cardui at once, and avoid more serious troubles. We urge you to try it. Begin today.

PHOTOGRAPHY AT SEA.

Not the least attractive feature of the modern ocean liner is the completely equipped dark room placed at the disposal of passengers. One or more cabins are set aside for the purpose. The dark room is supplied with metal tanks, running water, racks, trays and all possible equipment, together with electric ruby lamps which may be switched on or off. As a rule, this room will permit several people to work together, if they desire. An experienced photographer is placed in charge, who will coach amateur photographers if desired. A complete stock of photographic supplies is, of course, carried aboard. It is a common sight to see a tourist who has taken a snapshot on deck, for instance, appear a few hours later and display the finished mounted photograph.

I do not believe there is any other medicine so good for whooping cough as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, writes Mrs. Francis Turpin, Junction City, Ore. This remedy is also unsurpassed for colds and croup.
For sale by All Dealers.

DUTY OF HAPPINESS.

There is no duty we so much underrate as the duty of being happy.
By being happy, we sow anonymous benefits upon the world, which remain unknown even to ourselves, or when they are disclosed, surprise nobody so much as the benefactor. A happy man or woman is a better thing to find than a five-pound note.
He or she is a radiating focus of good will; and their entrance into a room is as though another candle had been lighted. We need not care whether they could prove the forty-seventh proposition; they do a better thing than that, they practically demonstrate the great theorem of the liveableness of life.—Robert Louis Stevenson.

BALKED AT COLD STEEL.

I wouldn't let a doctor cut my foot off, said H. D. Ely, Bantam, O., altho a horrible ulcer had been the plague of my life for four years. Instead I used Bucklin's Arnica Salve and my foot was soon completely cured. Heals burns, boils, sores, bruises, exzema, pimples, corns; surest 'ile cure 25c
